

Cameron Baker, originally from Denzil, Saskatchewan, will graduate with his Bachelor of Arts, with a major in Political Studies from the University of Saskatchewan in May. He has worked in the Alberta Oil Fields, and for the City of Saskatoon and more recently, was the Sports Editor and member of the Board of Directors of the Sheaf. Cameron grew up on a family farm and gave the Valedictorian Address at the High School Graduation.

Corinne Barnett graduated from the University of Saskatchewan with a Bachelor of Arts in Political Studies in 2001. She is now a resident of Regina and has been working for Saskatchewan Environment and Resource Management on a contract basis for the last year. She has coached various youth sports teams, has been a child-care worker and has volunteered with the Canadian Blood Service.

Bill Cooper will complete his Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Regina later this year. His major is Political Science, with a minor in Economics. He also has taken courses in business management from Northwood University, Michigan. He is from Regina and was a member of the Senior Men's Provincial Lacrosse Team, which won the National Championship in 2000 and 2001. Bill is a member of the Model United Nations Club and was a delegate to New York earlier this year.

Lee Weiss, born and raised in Mossbank, Saskatchewan, is a Political Science major at the University of Regina. He is an avid archer and has worked part time at Can-Sask Career and Employment Services, at the Mossbank and District Museum as a tour guide and on a farm. He has volunteered at the Regina Food Bank and with the Youth Hunter Challenge Team.